

Media Relations Policy

Purpose

Momentum Collective is committed to clear, concise and accurate information sharing and communication within the organisation and with customers, stakeholders, and the media.

Effective communication is integral to achieving our vision and mission, maintaining connection with community and customers and facilitating and encouraging feedback.

We will develop, implement and monitor organisation-wide communications planning to support timely and effective communication with all internal and external stakeholders and the wider community.

We will particularly ensure that all communications related to complaints are dealt with in a timely and sensitive manner and seek to resolve issues.

The organisation will monitor our media and social media presence and pro-actively seek to promote our cause, advocate on behalf of our customers and on behalf of the sector at large.

The purpose of this policy is to provide guidance to the organisation in developing and implementing communication and marketing strategies. This policy applies to all staff members, volunteers and Board members.

Representing the Organisation

How the organisation communicates and shares information impacts on the ability to seek support, be an effective advocate and conduct other aspects of work. It is the responsibility of all staff, Board members and volunteers to ensure the organisation provides accurate and appropriate information which complies with organisational expectations, and confidentiality and privacy requirements, when representing the organisation.

Media Relations

The use of local, state, and national media is an important part of our communication strategy, particularly to represent the interests of our stakeholders and community. We endeavour to maximise the advantages of media presentation, while minimising the risk of adverse impacts through misinformation or the damaging representation of our organisation, service sector, stakeholders or community.

The delegated media spokespeople for the organisation are the CEO and Chair of the Board. No member of staff will engage with media regarding any aspects of the organisation or its operations without clearance from the CEO via the Director of Marketing.

Media

Interaction with media may take the form of media releases, interviews with journalists or other engagement with written or electronic media including social media, SMS, email, websites, blogs, 'apps' and other emerging technology.

Use of media for any publication, commentary, or communication with stakeholders will:

- be in accordance with relevant delegations
- comply with organisational, service delivery and privacy policies and procedures, Statement of Professional Ethics and Conduct of Conduct.

Social Media

All Board Members, management, staff, students, volunteers and contractors are responsible for their online presence where it pertains to the organisation. Professional ethics, Use of Social Media Procedure and the organisation's Code of Conduct shall apply at all times including on private Social Media.
